

Quick Print

In Everest you can also print from the application menu, instead of going through the page layout. It is quick and simple.

From the applications menu, simply select print, and then print map.

Now you select your printer from the dropdown, if you would like to change your force scale. Check the box and select the scale that you would like. And "Select Ok."

